Pleasure Air™ Clitoral Stimulator

The only Pleasure Air™ stimulator designed for couples. Melt surrounds the clitoris with pulsating waves and gentle suction, while the curved design fits perfectly between you in any position. Turn up the heat and experience epic pleasure, together.

HOW IT WORKS

Melt uses subtle changes in air pressure to gently massage the clitoris, leading to intense pleasure and epic orgasms. The curved design is comfortable and easy to hold, while the Pleasure Air™ head is located right at Melt's tip, so it's easy to find just the right spot.

PLEASURE AIR™ TECHNOLOGY

Pleasure Air™ surrounds the clitoris with pulsating waves and gentle suction that feel like nothing else. Waves of air massage the clitoris with sensations that range from gentle kisses to stronger suction as you increase the intensity.

DESIGNED FOR COUPLES

Melt's slim, curved shape fits perfectly between you in any position, with zero bulk to get in the way of your good time.

APP CONTROLLED

Take Melt to the next level with the We-Connect™ app, for touchscreen controls and a completely fluid range of intensity levels. Find exactly the right sensation, in the moment.
